

CHORAL DEPARTMENT GUIDELINES 2011-2012

Return the completed form by September 2nd, 2011

This is a 50-point grade.

1. Use the restroom before or after class. Once the bell rings, you are in your spot, ready to sing.
2. Inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated at any time. Talking in class without permission, not participating in rehearsal, or disrupting the rehearsal in any way will be considered an offense. Any kind of inappropriate behavior during a performance will result in immediate removal from the performance and an automatic zero for that performance (see grading rubric for how this will affect the overall grade).
3. You must be on time to all rehearsals and concerts. "On time" means to be in your spot with your folder and a pencil in your hands before the bell rings. Pencils (not pens, markers, crayons, colored pencils, etc.) are required for every rehearsal.
4. Absolutely no food, drink, or chewing gum is allowed in the choir room, at any rehearsal or at any performance. Bottled water in a clear container is permitted.
5. Any time that there is a performance and school transportation is provided, by state law, all students must use this transportation unless travel arrangements are made with Ms. Kingman ahead of time by the parent in writing. The parent must then transport the student personally. No student will be allowed to drive to and/or from a performance when school transportation is provided. Failure to comply may result in immediate removal from choir.
6. Hats are not to be worn during any choral activity. The only exception is when a hat is part of an approved performance costume.
7. Treat all students, staff members, and property with respect at all times. This includes university observers, student teachers, chaperones, and EACH OTHER.
8. All offenses listed above are accumulative, according to the school handbook and grading rubric.
9. I have read the Northview Choirs handbook online at <http://nvchoir.org/handouts/> and understand what is expected of my child.

ALL PERFORMANCES ARE MANDATORY! The only excused absences that may be accepted are either a death in the immediate family or an illness with a written doctor's excuse to Ms. Kingman.

I have read the above rules and regulations and I will abide by them for the 2011-2012 school year.
